MARLIES BEGIN SEVEN GAME ROAD TRIP IN NY CAPITAL

THE OPPONENTS:

ALBANY RIVER RATS

The Marlies kick-off a seven game road swing when they visit the Times Union Center in Albany, NY for the first time in franchise history on Halloween evening. The home town River Rats, 5-2-0-1, will enter Wednesday night's game on a three game winning streak following back-to-back weekend shutout wins over division rivals Wilkes-Barre/Scranton and Hershey. Albany netminder Michael Leighton was recognized by the AHL as its Rbk/Vector Player of the Week after turning aside 84 of 86 shots and going 3-0-0 last week with wins over the Penguins and Bears in addition to a 3-2 home victory over the Syracuse Crunch last Wednesday. The 6-0-0-1 Marlies are off to the best start in their history and won both of their home games last weekend. Toronto is one of two AHL teams (Chicago) yet to lose in regulation time. Forward David Ling and defenceman Derrick Walser have recorded at least one point in each of the team's seven games to date and share a record for having registered points in consecutive games to begin the season. River Rats' rookie right wing Jerome Samson leads Albany in scoring with seven points (three goals, four assists) and has played in each of the team's eight games to date. Goaltender Leighton, a native of Petrolia, Ontario, has been between the pipes for all but one of the Rats' games so far this year and has a record of 4-2-1 with two shutouts and a 1.56 GAA.

Notables: The teams wrap-up their two game season series when they collide on December 30 at Ricoh Coliseum. That game will be the River Rats' first ever trip to Toronto but will mark the second time which the Marlies have hosted a Carolina Hurricanes' affiliate. They defeated the Lowell Lock Monsters 5-2 on the strength of a two goal game by current Maple Leaf John Pohl on December 21, 2005 at Ricoh.

WILKES-BARRE/SCRANTON PENGUINS

Toronto makes their first of two regular season stops in Pennsylvania when they visit the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins – AHL affiliate of the Pittsburgh Penguins – on Friday evening at Wachovia Arena at Casey Plaza. Off to a relatively slow start at 3-5-0 through eight games, the Penguins have not played since falling by a 4-2 score to the visiting Binghamton Senators last Saturday night. The Pens outshot the Sens by a 25-16 margin but could not contain a sizzling Denis Hamel who notched three goals and added an assist for the victorious visitors. Friday's contest marks the Penguins first of the year versus a Western Conference opponent. The team will also oppose the North Division's Hamilton Bulldogs, Lake Erie Monsters and Syracuse Crunch this season. Veteran centre Jeff Taffe leads Wilkes-Barre/Scranton in scoring through eight games with nine points including a team-high seven goals. Fellow American Ty Conklin has been the goaltender of record in all but one of the Pens' games this season and has a record of 3-4-0 with a 2.75 GAA.

Notables: The Marlies are 2-0-0 through two visits to Wachovia Arena. Toronto's Kris Newbury had an assist on a shorthanded game-tying goal at 18:45 of the third period before scoring the OT winner with 36 seconds to play when the Marlies last visited the Penguins on December 15, 2006. The Brampton native was recognized as the game's first star.

HARTFORD WOLF PACK

The Marlies conclude their regular season series with the Hartford Wolf Pack – AHL affiliate of the New York Rangers – when they visit the Hartford Civic Center for the first time in their history on Saturday evening. Hartford defeated the Marlies 4-3 in a shootout on October 21 at Ricoh Coliseum. Wolf Pack forward Greg Moore scored the game-tying goal with just under 13 minutes to play before

Dane Byers had the difference maker in the fifth round of the shootout to help the visitors earn the win. The loss marked the lone Marlies' setback as they began the season with six of their first seven contests on home ice. The Wolf Pack, 4-3-0-1, concludes a home-and-home series with the Worcester Sharks on Friday evening before they host Toronto on Saturday to conclude week's play. They were 2-1 winners at Worcester last Saturday. Moore had the game-winning goal in that contest when he tallied an unassisted marker with 56 seconds to play in the middle stanza. He leads the Wolf Pack in scoring with eight points (four goals, four assists) and has appeared in each of the team's eight games to date. Recently recalled from Charlotte of the ECHL, goaltender Chris Holt earned the win at Worcester and has a record of 2-1-0 with a 2.50 GAA.

Notables: The October 21 contest in Toronto featured a season high 100 penalty minutes between the teams. Saturday's contest is the Marlies' first ever in the state of Connecticut. The Constitution State is also home to the American Hockey League's Bridgeport Sound Tigers. The Wolf Pack will not play a road game outside of the Eastern Conference until they visit the Houston Aeros on March 7, 2008.

Rbk/VECTOR AHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOMINEE

For the week ending October 28th, 2007, the Toronto Marlies have nominated right wing David Ling for consideration as the Rbk/Vector AHL Player of the Week. A native of Halifax, Nova Scotia Ling tallied four points (two goals, two assists) as the team won home games against Hamilton and Syracuse last weekend. This week's award was ultimately won by Albany's Michael Leighton.

MARLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Marlies traveled to the Aurora Community Centre to hold a team practice on Wednesday, October 24. Following the one hour on-ice session, players greeted fans and signed autographs. The next community practice will take place at the Iroquois Sports Centre in Whitby on November 6.
