MARLIES TRAVEL TO TEXAS FOR TWO-GAME SET IN LONE STAR STATE

THE OPPONENTS:

HOUSTON AEROS

The Marlies face the Houston Aeros – AHL affiliate of the Minnesota Wild – in the first of two regular season meetings on Friday night at Toyota Center. The Aeros last played on Wednesday when they lost 4-2 to visiting Chicago. The team sits in fifth spot in the AHL's West Division with a record of 3-6-0-1, trailing fourth-place Peoria by four points. Prior to losing earlier this week against the Wolves, the Aeros had not lost a game in Houston since October 8th. The Marlies went 1-1 versus the Aeros last season, with each team winning 4-2 on home ice. Toronto had 58 shots on goal in their lone visit to Houston last January 10th. Aeros' netminder Josh Harding was recognized as the game's first-star following his 56 save performance. The shot total marked Toronto's highest in franchise history. The mark still stands to this date. The Marlies enter Friday's game with a record of 4-5-0-1. They are 1-0 versus West Division opponents and 2-1 away from Ricoh

Coliseum. Leading the Aeros in scoring through 10 games is: (RW) Matt Foy (3g-5a=8pts) while rookie forwards Danny Irmen (seven points) and Benoit Pouliot (six points) lead the team in goals with five. Harding has played in each of the team's 10 games and has a record of 2-6-1 with a 2.57 GAA and a 0.914 save percentage.

Notables: The Aeros travel to Ontario to face the Hamilton Bulldogs tomorrow evening at Copps Coliseum. They do not play at Ricoh Coliseum until March 16th when this year's season series comes to a close. That contest is the Marlies' lone remaining Friday night home game this season. Pouliot recorded 134 points (66 goals, 68 assists) in a two-plus season career with the Ontario Hockey League's Sudbury Wolves. He was a gold medal winning teammate of Marlies' goaltender Justin Pogge at last winter's World Junior Hockey Championships in Vancouver, British Columbia. Current Marlie Erik Westrum returns to Houston after finishing second on the Aeros (and second in the AHL) in scoring last season (34g-64a=98pts). He played in both games versus Toronto last season and had three points (2g, 1a). He was the lone Aero to score more than one goal versus the Marlies last season. Current Maple Leaf Ian White appeared in both games versus Houston last season and led both teams with four points (1g, 3a).

SAN ANTONIO RAMPAGE

Toronto concludes their Texas trip when the team visits the San Antonio Rampage – AHL affiliate of the Phoenix Coyotes – on Saturday evening at A T & T Center. The Rampage enters the game with a record of 3-8-0-0 and has not played since defeating the Bulldogs at home one week ago. San Antonio emerged with a 5-3 victory that night, their third win on home-ice this year. The team currently sits sixth in the AHL's West Division, leading last place Milwaukee by two points. The Admirals do however have six games in hand, having only played five games so far this season. Saturday's meeting marks the first of two games between the clubs this season. Despite having won the fewest amount of games in the AHL last season (23) the Rampage earned three of a possible four points versus the Marlies last year. Leading San Antonio in scoring through 11 games is: (C) Yanick Lehoux (4g-7a=11pts). He leads the team in both goals and assists. Philippe Sauve and David LeNeveu have each appeared in six games with the Rampage this season. LeNeveu is currently on recall to Phoenix. Sauve has a record of 2-4-0 with a 3.91 GAA and a 0.881 save percentage.

Notables: The teams conclude their regular season series when they meet at Air Canada Centre on January 25th. That night's contest will mark the third and final Marlies' game at ACC this season. A Montreal native, Lehoux played his entire four year major junior career with the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League's Baie-Comeau Drakkar, never missing more than seven games in any of his four seasons. He tallied 135 points (67 goals, 68 assists) in 2000-01 with the Drakkar. Former San Antonio forward Martin Sonnenberg scored his tenth and final goal as a member of the Rampage at 2:27 of overtime when the teams last met in Texas on January 13th. The Marlies' Brad Leeb finished tied for first among all players with two points (two goals) versus San Antonio last season. He was the lone player with more than one goal against the club, scoring once in Toronto (in a 2-1 SO victory on February 4th) and once in Texas (4-3 OT defeat). Current Maple Leafs Jay Harrison and Andy Wozniwski each had two assists versus the Rampage last season, matching Leeb's point total.

CCM/VECTOR AHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOMINEE

For the week ending October 29th, 2006, the Toronto Marlies have nominated centre Kris Newbury for consideration as the CCM/Vector AHL Player of the Week. Newbury recorded one goal, two assists in Wednesday, October 25th's loss at Hamilton before scoring twice (once SH) in the victory at Grand Rapids two nights later. He was held pointless on Saturday versus Wilkes-Barre/Scranton but was named the game's third star for his efforts. He led the Marlies with six shots on goal in that contest. This week's award was ultimately won by Manitoba's Jason Jaffray.

MARLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Once again this season, the Marlies are embarking on their Safe Schools campaign to promote an anti-bullying message to young students across Toronto. On Tuesday, October 31st, Marlies defencemen Marc Moro and Tyson Marsh, along with forward Jeff Corey appeared at Blessed Teresa of Calcutta Catholic School (1120 Running Brooke Drive, Mississauga) to continue this season's school visits.

MARLIES NOTES

 The Marlies scored two shorthanded goals in a game for the second time in eight days when they duplicated October 20th's feat last Friday evening at Grand Rapids. Brett Engelhardt tapped a rebound past Stefan Liv to help Toronto to a two-goal lead at 11:20 of the second period. Kris Newbury rounded-out the evening's scoring with an empty-netter at 18:44 of the final frame, thus essentially securing (G) Justin Pogge of his first professional win.

 Goaltender Justin Pogge turned aside 49 Grand Rapids shots to record his first professional win and first professional shutout on Friday at Van Andel Arena. The 49 shots by the Griffins were the most recorded in a shutout defeat in their 11 year existence. The shutout was the third by a Marlie and first since current Maple Leaf Jean-Sebastien Aubin blanked the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins on March 3rd, 2006 in Pennsylvania.

 First year Marlie Erik Westrum has recorded points in nine of the team's first 10 games. The Minneapolis, MN native currently leads the team in scoring with 13 points (five goals, eight assists) and is tied for sixth in league scoring. Fellow Minnesotan Chris Harrington leads Toronto defencemen with eight points (three goals, five assists). Current Maple Leaf John Pohl (Red Wing, MN) led the Marlies in scoring last season.
