MARLIES PLAY TWO ROAD GAMES THIS WEEKEND; HOST GRIFFINS ON SUNDAY Toronto Hosts Grand Rapids on Sunday Afternoon on Vesa Toskala Bobblehead Day

Opponents This Week:

(Feb. 27): The Marlies play their seventh of eight meetings against the Lake Erie Monsters – AHL affiliate of the Colorado Avalanche – on Friday night at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland, OH.

The Marlies defeated the Monsters in their last meeting in Lake Erie on December 26 by a score of 3-1. The Marlies were led by Kyle Rogers and Todd Perry who each had a goal; while Alex Foster chipped in with two assists. The Monsters currently sit in sixth place in the North Division with a 24-29-1-5 record for 54 points. Chris Durno paces the Monsters with 31 points (13 goals, 18 assists) and Jesse Boulerice has a team-high 97 penalty minutes. Durno was part of the Rampage last season when the Marlies played San Antonio in the first round of the Calder Cup playoffs. Last season the Marlies owned a 6-1-0-1 record against Lake Erie. Tom Fricthe played last season at Ohio State University where he recorded 19 points (five goals, 14 assists). He was drafted by Colorado in the second round (47th overall) of the 2005 NHL Entry Draft and is the younger brother of Minnesota Wild forward Dan Fricthe. The Marlies are 2-4-0-0 against the Monsters this season. Friday's matchup will mark the final time the Marlies travel to Cleveland to play Lake Erie.

Marlies forward Bates Battaglia has registered 12 points over his last 10 games. Battaglia's plus-14 rating is second on the club and 12th out of all AHL forwards.

(Feb. 28): The Marlies play their ninth of 12 meetings against their provincial-rival, the Hamilton Bulldogs – AHL affiliate of the Montreal Canadiens – on Saturday night at Copps Coliseum. The Marlies are 3-4-0-1 against the Bulldogs this season, falling 4-3 in their most recent matchup last Friday, February 20 at Ricoh Coliseum. Ryan Hollweg recorded his first goal as a member of the Marlies; while Jeremy Williams and Anton Stralman also scored. The Bulldogs currently rank third in the North Division with a 35-21-2-0 record for 72 points through 58 games this season. Hamilton owns a 17-11-1-0 record at Copps Coliseum. The Bulldogs' 194 goals for ranks second in the Western Conference and fourth overall in the AHL. Yannick Weber took part in the 2009 AHL All-Star Classic and was a teammate of Jaime Sifers for PlanetUSA. Kyle Chipchura was chosen in the first round (18th overall) by Montreal in the 2004 Entry Draft. He played alongside Justin Pogge as the captain of the Gold Medal 2006 Canadian World Junior team. Yanick Lehoux currently ranks first on the Bulldogs with 48 points (16 goals, 32 assists). Greg Stewart's 170 penalty minutes is seventh best in the AHL this season and a club-high. The Marlies hold a 25-15-0-3 all-time advantage over their QEW-rival. Toronto and Hamilton meet again on March 6 in Hamilton.

(Mar 1): The Marlies host the Grand Rapids Griffins – AHL affiliate of the Detroit Red Wings - on Sunday afternoon at Ricoh Coliseum. This will be the sixth of eight meetings between the two clubs. The Marlies defeated the Griffins 5-4 on Saturday February 14 at Ricoh Coliseum. Both Bates Battaglia and Jiri Tlustý had three-point nights; while Tim Stapleton added a pair of goals for the Marlies. Griffins' forward Justin Abdelkader recorded two goals in the loss. Grand Rapids ranks second in the North Division with a 34-14-6-5 record for 79 points. The Griffins have a road record of 13-9-3-1 so far this season. Grand Rapids has a record of 4-5-0-1 in their past 10 games and has dropped their past two games against the Marlies. The Griffins rank first in the AHL in penalty killing (87.3%), despite allowing five power play markers against the Marlies in their past two meetings. The Marlies rank fifth in the AHL on the power play (19.9%). Darren Haydar leads the Griffins with 56 points (21 goals, 35 assists). Darren Helm played in each of the final 18 games for the Detroit Red Wings last season, helping them win the Stanley Cup. The Marlies hold a slight advantage over Grand Rapids in their all-time record games played, 15-12-0. Their next meeting is on Friday, March 20 in Grand Rapids at the Van Andel Arena for a 7:00 p.m. puck-drop.

MARLIES HEADLINES:

Jiri Powering Up: Jiri Tlustý set the Marlies franchise record with his five-goal night on February 18 versus Syracuse. He also set the Marlies season-high with a plus-six rating and was named the game's first star. He has notched five multi-point games in his past eight contests. He's scored at least a goal in eight of his past 11 games (13 goals). He registered a Marlies season-high, four assists on Sunday, February 8 against Grand Rapids. Tlustý had his nine-game point streak (11 goals, nine assists) come to an end on February 21 against Rochester. In 46 games with the Marlies this season, Tlustý has racked up 45 points (20 goals, 25 assists); with 17 of his points coming on the power play. Tlustý ranks second on the team in points and first in goals.

Free Willy: Jeremy Williams has registered a goal in each of his past five games. In 24 games this season he has recorded 16 goals and four assists and is tied for the club lead with four game-winning goals. Williams ranks first on the Marlies and 10th (tie) in the AHL with 10 power play tallies. Williams is the Marlies all-time leader in goals (60) power play goals (26) and game-winning goals (16).

Home Ice Advantage: The Marlies finished their season-high, 11-game home stand with a 7-4-0-0 record. Toronto's only lost four home games since December 14, 2008. The Marlies have won their past five of seven games at home. The Marlies have out-scored their opponents 71-47 at Ricoh Coliseum, during a 16-game stretch. The Marlies hold an 18-10-0-2 advantage at home on the season. The Marlies set a franchise record on Friday, January 30 with their seventh consecutive home victory over the Hamilton Bulldogs, 4-2.

Tim Becoming a Staple: Tim Stapleton has notched 18 points (10 goals, eight assists) over his past 11 games. He had his eight-game point streak snapped last Friday night versus Hamilton. The Oak Park, Illinois native ranks first on the Marlies and seventh (tie) in the AHL with 20 power play assists. Stapleton ranks first in the AHL with seven shootout goals. In 51 games this season, Stapleton has 54 points (16 goals, 38 assists) including three game-winning tallies. His 36 assists rank fifth (tie) in the league and ranks 11th in points. Stapleton ranks first on the Marlies in assists and points. The American Hockey League named Stapleton the Reebok/AHL Player of the Week for period ending February 1, 2009.

Bates On The Board: Bates Battaglia has recorded 12 points in his last 10 contests (two goals, 10 assists). Battaglia had his six-game assist streak snapped on February 21 against Rochester. In 36 games this season, he ranks third on the team in points with 31 (13 goals, 18 assists). His plus-14 rating ranks second on the Marlies and 12th out of all forwards in the AHL.

What A Plus!: Phil Oreskovic currently ranks fifth (tie) in the AHL with a plus-18 rating. On Wednesday night against the Crunch, Oreskovic registered a plus-four rating. In 53 games this season, Oreskovic has tallied eight points (one goal, seven assists) and 80 penalty minutes.

On A Roll: Since November 19, 2008 the Marlies are 25-14-2-3 and have earned at least a point in their past 30 of 44 games (0.681 points percentage). Toronto's won four out of their past seven games decided by a shootout, despite losing their past two. Their home record since November 19 is 14-7-0-0.

Devo Time: Andre Deveaux has recorded eight points (three goals, five assists) in his past eight games. He notched his second hat-trick of the season on Sunday, February 8 against the Griffins in the Marlies 10-5 win. Two of his three goals came on the power play. Deveaux ranks second (tie) on the club with six power play tallies. Deveaux scored his first career AHL hat-trick on October 26, 2008 versus the Houston Aeros. In 22 games with the Marlies this season, he's tallied 16 points (nine goals, seven assists).

A Franchise Night: On Sunday, February 8 the Marlies had a franchise game when they defeated the Grand Rapids Griffins 10-5 at Ricoh Coliseum. The 10 goals the Marlies scored was a franchise-high and their five first period tallies was a season-high. Tim Stapleton led the way with four-goals in the game, three of which came in a span of four minutes and forty seconds. Andre Deveaux also scored a hat-trick in the game, his second of the season. In all, eight different Marlies players registered a multi-point game. Jiri Tlustý had a season-high four assists. The Marlies five power play goals was also an all-time high.

Shooting For The Stars: The Marlies rank in the top-five in the AHL in both shots for and shots against this season. The Marlies average 31.9 shots per game against their opponents (fifth in the AHL) and rank third for shots against with 26.7 per game. The Marlies have greatly out-shot their opponents in the second period, 640-511. Tim Stapleton set a Marlies single-season high with 10 shots on goal on January 31 versus the Rockford IceHogs.

Special Teams:

Power Play: Toronto's power play currently ranks fourth (tie) in the AHL with a 19.9% success rate. Their power play set a franchise record with five goals on Sunday, February 8 versus the Grand Rapids Griffins when they went an impressive 5-for-7 in the game. The Marlies have registered 10, multi-power play goal games so far this season. Their power play on the road ranks fifth (tie) overall at 20.3%. They've scored at least one power play goal in 17 of 27 road games. Tim Stapleton leads all Marlie skaters with 26 power play points.

Multi-Point Games: Tim Stapleton leads the team with 15 multi-point games this season. Stapleton, Alex Foster, Ben Ondrus and Jiri Tlustý each tallied at least two points on Sunday at Rochester. Stapleton has registered three points or more in three games this season.
