KEY SEVEN-GAME MARLIES' ROAD TRIP BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY EVENING IN NEBRASKA; FIVE WEST DIVISION OPPONENTS AWAIT AS TORONTO LOOKS TO CONTINUE ROAD SUCCESS

THE OPPONENTS:

OMAHA AK-SAR-BEN KNIGHTS

The Marlies begin their longest road trip of the season when they visit the Cornhusker State for the lone time this season to take-on the Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben Knights – AHL affiliate of the Calgary Flames – on Wednesday evening at Omaha's Civic Auditorium. Toronto will look to avenge a 4-1 setback when last the teams met in early November at Toronto's Air Canada Centre. Current Flame Dustin Boyd recorded a hatrick to pace the visitors' attack, while Toronto's Colin Murphy replied for the home side. The Knights, 21-13-3-0, are currently tied for second place (Peoria) in the American Hockey League's West Division and trail first place Chicago by 10 points for the division lead. Omaha does however have three games in-hand on the Wolves. Toronto, 15-19-2-3, is 3-3-0-1 versus West Division opponents this season and 1-1 on the road following a one goal victory at Houston (2-1 on November 3) and a one goal defeat at San Antonio (4-3 on November 4). Andrei Taratukhin leads all current Knights in scoring through 37 games with 29 points (9g-20a=29 pts) and has played in all of the team's games to date. Goaltender Curtis McElhinney has three shutout wins among his 12 victories (12-8-0) while maintaining a GAA of 2.32 and a 0.912 save percentage.

Notables: McElhinney turned aside 34 Marlies' shots in helping his team earn the win when these two clubs met in their first of two meetings this season. The Knights scored on three of six man-advantage opportunities that evening. Two of those goals were scored by Boyd while his third was a shorthanded marker. Manitoba's Jesse Schultz is the only other player to record a hatrick versus the Marlies. He tallied three goals and an assist en route to first star honours in a 5-2 Moose victory at Ricoh Coliseum last March 12. The Knights hold a 2-1-0 edge in three all-time meetings with the Marlies. In the only game played at Omaha, current Maple Leafs Ian White, John Pohl and Ben Ondrus, in addition to current Marlie Jeremy Williams had multi-point evenings while Carlo Colaiacovo tallied the game-winning goal midway through the third period in a 5-3 Toronto win on November 13, 2005.

PEORIA RIVERMEN

The Marlies attempt to sweep the regular season series with the Peoria Rivermen – AHL affiliate of the St. Louis Blues – when the teams meet on Friday evening at Peoria's Civic Center Carver Arena. Friday's meeting represents the second of two meetings between the clubs this season and the first in Illinois. Toronto tallied a season high four first period goals (three of which came on the powerplay) in defeating the Rivermen 4-3 when last the teams met on October 22 at Ricoh Coliseum. Peoria, 21-14-1-2, enters Friday night action on the heels of a 3-0 shutout at the hands of Grand Rapids' Stefan Liv on Wednesday evening. They sport a 12-7-0 record on home-ice this season and are one of only four Western Conference teams with at least 12 home wins this season. Rochester, Hamilton and San Antonio are the others. Toronto emerged with a 4-2 win in this building in the only other encounter between these teams in Peoria on November 11, 2005. Current Maple Leafs John Pohl and Bates Battaglia both had multi-point evenings en route to first and second star honours respectively. (C) Trent Whitfield leads the Rivermen in scoring with 36 points through 38 games (17g-19a=36 pts). Goaltender Marek Schwarz has a record of 13-6-0 while maintaining a GAA of 2.59 and a 0.904 save percentage through 21 appearances with the club this season.

Notables: Toronto split last year's two game series with Peoria as each team won away from home. Carlo Colaiacovo scored what turned out to be the GWG in the teams' most recent meeting. The goal was in addition to a powerplay assist he registered on Colin Murphy's game-opening goal. The two powerplay points helped his being recognized as the game's first star, despite not playing the entire third period due to injury. Whitfield has missed only one regular season game. He was recalled to St. Louis earlier in the year but did not see any game action.

IOWA STARS

The Iowa Stars – AHL affiliate of the Dallas Stars – welcome the Marlies to Wells Fargo Arena for the only time this season when the teams conclude their regular-season series one week from when it began on Saturday evening in Des Moines. The Stars, 21-16-1-0, earned five of a possible six points during a three-game trip to Canada last week. It marked the only time this season that the Dallas affiliate will venture north of the border. The Hamilton Bulldogs overcame 2-0 and 3-1 deficits before defeating Iowa 4-3 in overtime last Wednesday evening at Copps Coliseum.

Hamilton's Maxim Lapierre beat former Bulldog Dan Ellis with an unassisted marker at 2:29 of the extra session to help the 'dogs snap a three game losing streak. Iowa's Steve Silverthorn earned his first professional shutout, in his first professional game, in turning aside 32 Hamilton shots in a 2-0 victory over the Bulldogs two nights later. Silverthorn was at it again the following night when he was once again recognized with first star honours following a 24 save performance in a 3-0 shutout win over the Marlies at Ricoh Coliseum. Dan Hacker, Junior Lessard and Mario Scalzo scored second period goals to help the visitors to the win. The Stars currently sit in fourth place in the West Division and maintain a one point lead over Milwaukee in the chase for the division's final playoff spot. They sport an 8-8-0 record on home ice this season and were 5-1 winners when last the teams met in the Hawkeye State on November 12, 2005. (C) Joel Lundqvist leads the Stars in scoring with 33 points through 38 games (15g-18a=33 pts). Goaltender Ellis has a record of 11-9-0 while maintaining a GAA of 3.37 and a 0.878 save percentage through 22 appearances with the club this season.

Notables: Toronto split last year's two game series with Iowa as each team won on home ice. This year's contests versus West Division opponents take-on added significance to those of last season. Should the West's fifth place finisher end the season with more points than the North Division's fourth place team, there will be a cross-over format in the first round of North Division semifinal play. The North's Rochester Americans would face Milwaukee in the first round should the standings finish in the same order as is current. Iowa was the last AHL team to lose a game in overtime or shootout fashion this season. The Marlies were the longest to hold-out in 2005-06. Scalzo was a teammate of Sidney Crosby's when the Rimouski Oceanic lost the Memorial Cup Final to London in May, 2005. Silverthorn has been returned to the East Coast Hockey League's Idaho Steelheads after the two Stars' games in Canada.

MILWAUKEE ADMIRALS

The Marlies make their first of two stops at Wisconsin's Bradley Center when they confront the Milwaukee Admirals – AHL affiliate of the Nashville Predators – on Sunday afternoon. Sunday's contest marks the third of four regular season meetings between the clubs and the first since the Ads left Ricoh Coliseum with a 4-3 SO win on December 3.

Milwaukee's Jason Guerriero tied the game at 3-3 when he scored with 9:52 remaining in regulation time then added one of two goals in the shootout session to help the visitors earn a split in the two games they played in Toronto that week.

Current Maple Leaf Boyd Devereaux recorded the first hattrick in Marlies' history at Ricoh Coliseum to help Toronto earn a 4-2 victory on November 29. The Admirals, 18-14-3-3, trail fourth place Iowa by one point in the chase for the West Division's final playoff spot. They host the Stars when they return from a three game road trip through Texas and Nebraska in just over a week's time. Milwaukee sports a 5-7-2-1 record on home ice this season and were 4-3 overtime winners when last the teams met in this building one year minus one day ago. Current Predator Scottie Upshall notched a powerplay marker with 4:08 to play to tie the January 15, 2006 game at 3-3. Following a too many men on the ice penalty at 1:15 of the extra session, Upshall scored his second of the night at 1:45 of overtime to give the home side the win. (C) Rich Peverley leads the Admirals in scoring with 42 points through 38 games (16g-26a=42 pts). Goaltender Karl Goehring has a record of 14-10-3 while maintaining a GAA of 2.82 and a 0.903 save percentage through 28 appearances with the club this season. He earned the win in goal when last the teams met in early December at Toronto.

Notables: Milwaukee is one of three AHL teams to share their home facility with a member of the National Basketball Association. The Toronto Raptors earned their 16th win of the season when they defeated the Bucks 90-77 at the Bradley Center on Wednesday evening to maintain their first place lead in the Atlantic Division. Houston and San Antonio are the two other clubs. Cleveland will follow suit when a franchise returns to the Ohio city in time for the AHL's 72nd season of 2007-08. A current member of the ECHL's Columbia Inferno, centre Luke Fulghum recorded the first hattrick in Marlies' history when he tallied three goals in a 6-1 win over the Cleveland Barons at Air Canada Centre on January 2, 2006.

CHICAGO WOLVES

The Chicago Wolves – AHL affiliate of the Atlanta Thrashers – represent the 18th of 18 opponents for the Marlies in 2006-07. The Wolves host the Marlies in the first of two this week at Rosemont, Illinois' Allstate Arena on Wednesday evening. The clubs meet four times this season in a regular-season series which comes to an end when the teams do battle on Monday, February 5 in Toronto. These teams met on only two occasions last season with both clubs winning in their opponents' home building. The Wolves, 26-11-1-2, are owners of the Western Conference's best record (and third best in the AHL). Despite their success, they sit only two games above the .500 mark with a record of 9-7-1-2 in the Chicago suburbs. Toronto will have to be wary when the Wolves come calling in a few weeks' time. Their road record of 17-4-0 is well clear of all other teams in the league. While not concerning themselves with the Wolves' road prowess just yet, the Marlies will have to stabilize three of the league's top five scorers when the puck drops between the teams on Wednesday night. Milton, Ontario's (RW) Darren Haydar leads Chicago in scoring with 79 points through 40 games (24g-55a=79 pts) while rookie (LW) Brett Sterling leads the league with 35 goals. Goaltender Michael Garnett owns the Wolves' lone shutout victory this season and has a record of 13-7-0 while maintaining a GAA of 3.34 and a 0.890 save percentage through 21 appearances with the club this season.

Notables: The Wolves' 2-1 setback versus Peoria on Tuesday evening marked the end of Haydar's AHL all-time high 39 game scoring streak. Haydar had recorded at least one point in each of the team's games this season before the Rivermen were able to turn the tide. The streak had very much been in jeopardy as recently as the club's December 30 5-3 home setback versus Rochester until Haydar helped set-up teammate Jared Ross' shorthanded marker with nine seconds remaining in the team's 36th game of the season. A Los Angeles native, Sterling played four seasons of NCAA hockey for Colorado College. He tallied a career-high 34 goals in 42 games in 2004-05. The Marlies overcame a 2-0 first period deficit to earn a 5-4 victory when last the teams met in the Windy City on January 14, 2006. Injured Marlie Brad Leeb had four points en route to first star honours. The February 5 game at Ricoh will mark the first time the Marlies have hosted a Monday night game.

2007 Rbk HOCKEY AHL ALL-STAR CLASSIC

The 2007 Rbk Hockey American Hockey League All-Star Classic is coming to Toronto! The two day event will begin on Sunday, January 28 with the 2007 CCM AHL All-Star Skills Competition. The competition pits players from the Canadian AHL All-Stars against players from the Planet/USA AHL All-Star team as they compete in seven different events. The Classic concludes on Monday, January 29 when the two teams meet in the AHL All-Star Game. Start time on both evenings is 7 p.m. at Ricoh Coliseum. Tickets are available by calling 416-872-5000 or by visiting torontomarlies.com Both the CCM AHL All-Star Skills Competition and the AHL All-Star Game will air live in Canada on Rogers Sportsnet. Fans can review both teams' rosters by logging onto theahl.com

CCM/VECTOR AHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOMINEE

For the week ending January 7th, 2007, the Toronto Marlies have nominated left wing Colin Murphy for consideration as the CCM/Vector AHL Player of the Week. Murphy scored to tie the game at 3-3 with just over nine seconds remaining in last Friday's eventual 4-3 shootout win over the Senators in Binghamton. He had four points in three games last week. This week's award was ultimately won by Wilkes-Barre/Scranton's Tyler Kennedy.

MARLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Once again this season, the Marlies are embarking on their Safe Schools campaign to promote an anti-bullying message to young students across Toronto. Stay tuned to this page as Marlies' school visits continue following their seven-game road trip.

MARLIES NOTES

** The Marlies tied a franchise high for shots on goal with 58 in Friday's 4-3 SO win at Binghamton. They were awarded a shot for the shootout victory so this is somewhat of a technicality. Colin Murphy paced the visitors' attack with 10 shots. Injured forward Brad Leeb fired 10 shots at Aeros' netminder Josh Harding when last the Marlies had 58 shots in a game in a 4-2 loss at Houston last January 10.

** Former Marlies John Pohl, Bates Battaglia, Ian White, Boyd Devereaux and Kris Newbury combined for 12 points in the Maple Leafs 10-2 win at Boston last Thursday evening. Pohl, the Marlies leading scorer with 75 points in 60 games last season, was named the game's second star with one goal and two assists.
